

Application Checklist

Here is a guide to the admissions process.
Please call 603-357-4442 if you have any questions.

- Parents Visit the School

Please call the school to set up a visit. A tour will give you a first-hand experience of our classes in session. You may also arrange a visit and tour with Lisa Mahar, 357-4442 x104.

- Complete and Submit Application

Return completed application form with application fee ($50 per student) to Monadnock Waldorf School.

- Tuition Assistance

Families may apply for assistance when the school has received your admissions application. (Please see additional information below.)

- Parent-Student Faculty Interview

Your child's teacher will call to set a time to meet with you and your child, to assess your child's development, to gather biographical information, and answer your questions.

- Student's Class Visit as Appropriate

The teacher will arrange for your elementary or high school student to visit the classroom for two or three days. Nursery and Kindergarten students may also visit with a parent.

- Notification of Acceptance

An acceptance letter and enrollment packet will be sent to your home.

- Reserve a Space

Your deposit must be received to reserve your child's place in the classroom. Next you will meet with our bookkeeper, Jo-Anne Yardley to set up your tuition agreement. She will outline payment options.

- Please Note:

We are happy to receive applications after the school year has started. They are accepted and processed provided there are spaces available.
